

Lesson 8: Introducing My Hobbies

By Xandra

1. Dialogue

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, practice each role.

Tristan: Do you know anyone who can draw?

Ken: You're looking at him.

Tristan: Do you think you could draw a sketch of my dog?

Ken: I can totally do that. It's quite easy. Just give me your dog's best photo.

Tristan: I never knew you could draw. Is this a hobby of yours?

Ken: I could already sketch the minute I was able to hold a pencil. It's one of my many artistic hobbies.

Tristan: What else can you do?

Ken: Let's see... I do oil paintings, wood and ice carving, and I can even do tattoos.

Tristan: Oh. So, are you good at what you do?

Ken: That's the thing. I'm not.

2. Today's Phrase

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, make a few sentences using Today's phrase.

1. John can totally pass the audition for the play's lead actor.
2. My mom totally freaked out when she saw her new dress was stained.
3. A: Do you think he likes me? B: Totally.

* Totally / 完全に、全体的に

3. Your Task

You are applying for a job and you are trying to impress your interviewer.

You then try to mention all your skills, hobbies and talents in the hope of getting the job.

Your interviewer will be played by your tutor.

4. Let's Talk

Talk about your hobbies with your tutor. Then, ask about your tutor's hobbies.

5. Today's photo

Describe the photo in your words.
