

Lesson 10: My Dream for the Future

By Xandra

1. Dialogue

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, practice each role.

George: When will you be graduating?

Ichiro: I have one more semester and then I will graduate later this year.

George: What do you plan to do after graduation?

Ichiro: I know I'm supposed to look for a job right away but I plan to take some time off.

George: What will you do during that time?

Ichiro: I would like to improve on my English so I'll be staying in Australia for 6 months.

George: I think that's a marvelous idea. It's a great way to practice English and meet people.

Ichiro: Thank you but my parents don't think so.

They think that it's the perfect excuse to drink and party every night.

2. Today's Phrase

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, make a few sentences using Today's phrase.

1. I'm worried about my mother. She was supposed to give me a call this morning.
2. Why did you eat the lasagna? It's supposed to be our dinner. Now what are we going to eat?
3. My iPhone suddenly updated its program and then it shut down. Is it supposed to do that?

* be supposed to ... / ...することを期待されている⇒...しなければならない、...するはずである

3. Your Task

You are in a job interview. Your interviewer (= your tutor) asks you what your dreams are for your career and family.

Give a detailed answer. Remember that you are also trying to impress the interviewer so do the best you can.

4. Let's Talk

How did your parents help you with your goals and dreams?

Who or what inspired / influenced you to be who you are today?

Where would you be five years from now?

5. Today's photo

Describe the photo in your words.
