

Lesson 12: How to Express Your Feelings/ Emotions

By Xandra

1. Dialogue

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, practice each role.

Yuriko: You won't believe what just happened.

Jay: Why do you look excited? What happened?

Yuriko: I won the lottery today. I'm $10,000 richer.

Jay: Wow! That's wonderful! This is the best news I've heard in months!

Yuriko: I know, right? I am still in shock.

Jay: Oh, you lucky girl. I am so jealous right now. What will you do with your winnings?

Yuriko: I will finally be able to pay off my credit card debt.

Jay: Not only that. We can now take our dream vacation in Spain.

Yuriko: Yes! But wait... what do you mean by "we"? I'm going alone. You'll have to stay here and guard the house.

2. Today's Phrase

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, make a few sentences using Today's phrase.

1. I was completely in shock when I won the award.
2. The town was in shock after the big earthquake hit.
3. Miho was in shock when her boyfriend proposed.

*be in shock / ショックを受けている

3. Your Task

You have just won a million dollars. You first call your boss (=your tutor) to tell him/her that you quit your job. It's up to you if you will say the reason. And then, you're going to call your mother or father (= your tutor) about the good news.

4. Let's Talk

Tell your teacher of the best news that you've ever received in your life.

Who would be the first person you'd call when you received good news?

Mention how your friends and family would react to good or bad news.

5. Today's photo

Describe the photo in your words.

Image courtesy of photostock / FreeDigitalPhotos.net