

Lesson 14: How to Ask Your Questions

By Xandra

1. Dialogue

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, practice each role.

Mai: Hi, Donny. What are you doing?

Donny: I'm packing my suitcase. I'm going on vacation.

Mai: I see. Where are you going?

Donny: I'm going to Okinawa.

Mai: How will you get there?

Donny: I'm taking a plane.

Mai: When are you leaving?

Donny: My flight is tomorrow morning.

Mai: Who are you going with?

Donny: My parents. Why are you asking so many questions? I have to pack now.

2. Today's Phrase

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, make a few sentences using Today's phrase.

1. What is your favorite food?
2. Where do you go to school?
3. Who picks you up from school?
4. When is your birthday?
5. Why do like living in Japan?
6. How do you cook tonkatsu sauce?

* what / なに, where / どこ, who / だれ, when / いつ, why / なぜ, how / どのように

3. Your Task

You are a journalist. You are doing an interview with Hollywood actor, Ken Watanabe. You have a chance to ask him five questions. Interview Ken (=your tutor) and ask your questions like a reporter would.

4. Let's Talk

In Japan, is it a custom to use polite words when asking a teacher a question?

How do you ask your parents questions? How about when you ask friends questions?

5. Today's photo

Describe the photo in your words.
