

Lesson 33: Job Advertisements

By Xandra

1. Dialogue

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, practice each role.

Yoshi: What are you reading in the newspaper, Dad?

Edward: I'm browsing through job advertisements. I'm looking for a new job.

Yoshi: Why don't you use the internet for that?

Edward: (thinking) Hmm... Should I be doing that?

Yoshi: Everyone uses the internet for job applications, Dad. Even job interviews are done online.

Edward: Alright. I'll do my job searching on the web. But I'll need your help in using the computer.

2. Today's Phrase

First, repeat after your tutor. Then, make a few sentences using Today's phrase.

1. Edward is looking for a job in the newspaper.
2. John lost his dog. He looked for it everywhere but he still hasn't found it.
3. Can you help me look for my glasses?

* look for ... /...を探す

3. Your Task

You are looking for a job. You saw an advertisement in the newspaper. There's a phone number on the ad for you to call. Get some details from the hiring personnel (=your tutor). Ask whether the job's still available, what time you can visit their office, and other important information.

4. Let's Talk

As a young person, what are some jobs that you could do to earn some money?

Which do you like better: 1 – to go to school, eat and play every day or 2 – to work and earn some money? Explain your answer.

5. Today's photo

Describe the photo in your words as precisely as possible.

Image courtesy of KROMKRATHOG / FreeDigitalPhotos.net